WALTER JOHNSON NOT WANTED BY FEDERALS, SAYS GILMORE

Failure to Accept Three-year Proposition Sours Outlaw League Promoters. Fielder Jones Offered $60,000.

CHICAGO, Ill., November 24.-Pitcher Walter Johnson now firmly believes that he who hesitates is lost. The Nationals' star hurler hesitated over an offer of $60,000 for three years' work from the Federal League, and before he could make up his mind the outlaws withdrew their offer. The result is Johnson cannot join Gilmore's organization now if he wants to.

"No," said President Gilmore today when asked if the St. Louis club was still seeking the big pitcher. "We've called it off. Fielder Jones offered him $20,000 a year for a three-year contract. He asked for time to consider it. Before he could make up his mind Jones and the St. Louis club called it off. Furthermore, the Federal League decided to worry along without him."

Herrmann Dares Feds Leader to Make Public Proposed Peace Terms.

CINCINNATI, November 24 .- "Pry off the lid, come right out in the open and describe in detail all the terms of peace alleged to have been offered the Fedat League by organized base ball." President Herrmann of the national ommission hurled this challenge at President Gilmore of the Federal League yesterday. Herrmann apparenty was piqued over an interview cred ted to Gilmore at Cleveland. "If he thinks it will do his league any good to have it known just what he offered organized base ball, and what the latter offered in return, he is at perfect liberty to announce all the dealings," said Herrmann.

"His interview in Cleveland would ead the fans to suspect that we had nade overtures for peace which were very favorable to the Federal League, and doubtless this was the intention of his statement. I am just giving him notice that he need not refrain, through notice that he need not refrain, through any sense of delicacy, from making public all he knows about peace terms and negotiations. I doubt if he will accept this invitation, but I would be glad to see him do so.

"As a matter of fact the Federal League is in a very bad shape financially, and I don't think it will attempt to start again. The inability of Charles Weeghman to raise sufficient funds to purchase an interest in the Chicago Cubs from Charles P. Taft is proof conclusive that the Federals are in bad straits financially."

the victory.

In the fourth period, after Harvard had scored its final touchdown, the Yale team was making desperate efforts to do something in the closing minutes of play. The quarterback called off a signal, but one of the mea in the Blue line did not get the play and called "signal."

"What's the matter," shouted Taibott. "Can't you remember those signals?"

"How do you think I can keep track of the signals when I can't even count the touchdowns?" came back the answer.

Ban Johnson will have the support of the base ball public from coast to coast in his efforts to have the National League oust Charles W. Murphy from the game. The discovery that Murphy holds the majority stock of both the Cubs and Phillies as security was a sad blow to organized base ball, which has been boasting that Murphy had been eliminated from the game.

"However, bunch Lee's ability to hit 'em on the nose, to bunt for a sacrifice, to play any outfield position, to cover first base, to cover second base, and where is his superior? Maybe a few; but how many?

who are to meet in New York December 8, and insist that the old league make good its promise to rid the game of Murphy.

The owners of clubs in both leagues realize that Murphy's identification with the game is a detriment. This is particularly true of the National League club in Chicago and is sure to work a hardship on the club in Philadelphia, frow that it has made public that Murphy is the real man behind the

FEDERAL PROMOTERS STUNNED BY PROPOSITION

Local Officials Satisfied Star Pitcher Would Not Jump Unless He Got Fortune.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

President Gilmore's announcement that the Federal League had dropped all negotiations with Walter Johnson decided to worry along without him.

Gilmore's statement leaves the field open to Clark Griffith, and if the Senatorial leader can meet Johnson's terms Washington fans will watch their pitcher in action for at least another season.

Washington fans will watch their pitcher in action for at least another season.

Washington's case is a peculiar one. He was offered a forty-eight-thousand-dollar contract for three years by Clark Griffith, but asked for time to consider it. Before he could reply Griffith with-drew his proposition. Then came Fielder Jones and his sixty-thousand-dollar offer. Again Walter hesitated, any word from Johnson for weeks, but it is believed that in due time the will be heard from and signify his willingness to sign with the Nationals.

Judged from a statement made by Fielder Jones, who carried on negotiations with Johnson some time ago, the big pitcher demanded a five-year contract calling for $20,000 per season, and so framed that the money was assured Johnson regardless of what might happen. He demanded that the entire amount of the contract be placed in bank, subject to his order from time to time. Jones and the other Federal Leaguers were stunned by this proposition, and after several conferences with Gilmore and other Fed ofeffort would be made to sign Johnson.

Johnson wants to remain with the Washington club, and only in the event of the Feds guaranteeing him $100,000 would he have taken the jump. He intimated to his friends last season that if he went to the Feds it would be at a figure which had never been equaled in base ball, and probably never would be.

Johnson got his idea of his value to the Feds last spring in New York, when he was taken by Bill Bradley and Jim Delehanty to pay one of the Wards, owners of the Brooklyn Feds, a visit. He was given to understand at this interview that money was no object, and that whenever he was ready to sign he could name his own figures. But the Wards dropped negotiations with him during the summer, and the next effort to get him into line was made by Fielder Jones, with the result already stated.

Sid Keener of the St. Louis Times Johnson wants to remain with the chance, resigned, according to a story circulated here last night. The deal will be closed, it is said, at the annual meeting of the National League in New York December 8. A top-notch pitcher now with the Yankees will be turned over to Manager Bres. han as part of the transaction which will make Tommy a fulfleged mass league pilot.

Word from Manhattan has it that John J. Metraw had recommended Leach to Frank Furrell and "Big Bill" Devery, backers of the Yankees.

Claim World's Bowling Record.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., November 24.
—In rolling up a total of 3,147 points in a match game under tournament restrictions with the local Zumalweiss team Sunday night, the Schmidt bowling quintet of St. Paul claims to have established a world's record. The previous high score of 3,912 was made by the St. Paul Knishled at the Toleda tournement in 1912.

Magee's absence will not crimp the club next year. Do those who now hand jeers at Lee remember how often he raced back to the center field fence for wonderful catches; how he poked out a timely base hit for a run? How frequently he turned something unexpected on the bases, and how willingly he tossed aside his outfield glove for a first baseman's mitt and handled the initial sack as brilliantly as any experienced first baseman in either major league?

"Lee Magee is a star, we'll have to admit that. If he could master Cose Dolan's base-running factics he would be the Ty Cobb of the National League. In base-running alone does Lee show a weakness. He's fairly speedy, but he can't get that start away from first base.

The Contrast of Perkins Clothes

Just regard the difference that must result in Clothes made in the orderly quiet of a shop peopled with expert tailors and those produced in the hubbub of a factory, where whirring machinery mocks thought and pains and intelligence.

If you have observed, "hand-tailored Clothes" is a favorite term. Must be some consequential merit to this hand-work to be so emphasized. There is-but very, VERY little of ready-for-wear can lay any legitimate claim to the virtue.

But Perkins Clothes ARE hand-tailored. They show it in the easy. graceful lines; in the individuality of fit; in the thoroughness of finishing detail. They win your favor, because they appeal to your reason. They are neither cut with a buzz-saw; nor sewed with a shuttle. But at each point are the evidences of the trained artist's work. Each model interprets fashion; each stitch gives it expression.

You don't see the stripes shying at each other in Perkins Clothes; nor the plaids at cross purposes—but each pattern matches perfectly. That's head-work and hand-work.

These Clothes of ours come to us from the most exclusive shops in America. It isn't with them a question of, will we buy from them-but. will they accept the orders. We had to prove to them that the Perkins Shop was to be as good a shop as their garments. They plainly told us they had refused all Washington commissions before. They have since told us they are glad of our connection.

We had to have them-because, we promised you the best of everything-and this paricular make of Clothes is pre-eminent.

It doesn't mean high-priced. You'll find-if you'll make comparisons—that we are just the opposite. What we're doing is bringing right Clothes and right prices together. There isn't a man of you who won't appreciate the difference in our Clothes-and like as not you'll find us a good bit lower in price-certainly better in quality.
